APPENDIX A

Procedures for the Election of Chair and Vice-Chair of the Regional Councillors Committee (RCC)

A separate ballot will take place for each of the positions of Chair and Vice-Chair following the procedures outlined below.

1. The RCC election meeting chair is the person to chair this special meeting only. The purpose of this meeting is to select the chair person and vice chair person of the Regional Councillors Committee.
2. Manager, Chapters will call the meeting to order in the absence of a RCC chair or RCC election meeting chair.
3. The Committee will nominate a member from among themselves to chair the meeting. The RCC election meeting chair (hereinafter known as Meeting Chair) must be a Regional Councillor and consent NOT to being a candidate for the position(s) being considered. The meeting Chair may vote as outlined in 7 below.
4. The Meeting Chair will ask for nominations for the position of RCC Chair. A nomination does not require a seconder. A Regional Councillor who is absent from the meeting may be nominated, provided such Councillor has provided at least three days prior written notification to the Chapter Manager that he/she consents to the nomination and agrees to serve in that capacity, if appointed as well as provide any comments the candidate might otherwise provide at the meeting in support of his/her nomination.
5. Each candidate will be asked if he/she consents to the nomination.
6. The Meeting Chair will ask for further nominations. If none is received, the Meeting Chair will declare the nominations closed. Nominations may be closed by the Meeting Chair without the need for a motion.
7. Each nominee will be afforded an opportunity to make a brief (3-5 minute) personal introduction should they so wish. The Meeting Chair will read any comments received from absent nominees.
8. Councillors will vote, by signed ballot, from among the nominees.
9. Chapter Manager and another staff or two impartial parties will act as Scrutineer as decided by the Meeting Chair or the meeting attendees. The Scrutineer will assist the Meeting Chair to collect, examine and count the votes. The Meeting Chair may vote after the ballots are collected but is not permitted to vote which would create a deadlock and must vote to break a deadlock.
10. The Meeting Chair to declare the nominee with the majority of votes cast to be elected. Where there is only one nominee for a position, the Meeting Chair shall declare the nominee elected.
11. Where no candidate obtains a majority on the ballot, the nominee(s) receiving the fewest number of votes will be dropped and another ballot will take place from among the remaining nominees. This process will be repeated as necessary until one nominee receives a majority.
12. Voting procedures for the appointment of Chair and Vice-Chair of the RCC are to be provided in advance of the meeting and reviewed just prior to the commencement of the nomination process at the meeting <see below>.

Voting procedures

All candidates will be provided an opportunity to say a few words to the committee as to why they should be elected.

If there are two candidates, it is proposed to the committee that the following procedure is to be followed:

- Election will be by closed recorded ballot.
- The nominee to obtain a majority of the total vote cast will be declared elected.
- In case of a tie, the committee will be informed. Votes will be taken again in the form of closed recorded ballot until a nominee with a majority of votes emerges.

If there are three or more candidates, it is proposed by the committee that the following procedure is to be followed:

- Election will be by closed recorded ballot.
- The first nominee to obtain a majority of the total vote cast will be declared elected.
- If a tie results from a first ballot, the number of subsequent ballots as is necessary will take place from amount all the nominees until one candidate has received a majority.
- Where no candidate obtains a majority on the first ballot, the nominee receiving the fewest number of votes will be dropped and a second ballot will take place amount the remaining nominees.
- The above step will be repeated as necessary until one nominee receives a majority.
